

ASPAC Creative Awards 2026 Entry form

(Entries close at midnight in your respective time zones on Friday 29 May, 2026)

Name of lead organisation:

Title of project:

Type of project (please select):

- Show
- Exhibit/ Exhibition
- Other Creative Project

Project web page url (if available):

Synopsis/short description of the project (up to 100 words)

Please provide a succinct description of your project, describing key elements such as what it is about, who it is for, your creative process, who you worked with and when/where it took place. This description may be used as a public citation of merit for your project if it is successful in being shortlisted for an award.

Addressing the criteria - Please address each assessment criteria in detail. Word limits apply!

Creativity (500 words)

Describe how your project demonstrates significant creativity or innovation. Consider its degree of transdisciplinarity, connectedness of topics, novelty or originality in content and use of innovative approaches, processes and materials

Impact and outcomes (250 words)

Describe what your project tried to achieve, how well it achieved its goal/s, how you measured its impacts, and any surprising learnings from the project.

Relevance of project (250 words)

Describe your project's relevance to 21st century challenges, technologies or ideas

Project partners:

List the key organisations involved in creating your project

Key personnel:

List the names of team member/s who made the project happen.

Nominator/Key contact for further information:

Name:

Title:

Email:

Phone number:

Approval by Head of Institution:

The CEO/ Director/ Head of Institution must approve the submission

Name:

Title:

Signature:

Supporting information:

You must provide a digital file with supporting evidence for your entry that is no more than 1GB in size. This could be as a PowerPoint file, a digital video file of no longer than 10 minutes or a compressed archive in the common .zip format.

Please include a single image representing your project with a short caption and photography credit. This image may be used to promote your project if it is successful in being shortlisted for an award.

Name of supporting digital file (please title the file using the format YOUR INSTITUTION NAME_ YOUR PROJECT NAME):