Thai Silk Road & Baan Krua

Minimum 15 persons

08:30-14:30

PROGRAM 3

Discover the mystery and charm of "Thai silk" on this captivating half-day tour. We begin with a comfortable van pick-up from your hotel to the Jim Thompson House Museum. Explore this exquisite complex of traditional Thai teak houses and learn the fascinating story of the silk village in Bangkok, when Jim Thompson would open his bedroom window to the rhythmic sounds of the handloom. The museum was amidst his world-class art collection featuring silk that he introduced to the international market, along with an extension building surrounded by lush gardens for his relaxation. Next, we take a short walk along Klong saensab to Baan Krua, where the first silk in Bangkok was found. Visit the original hand weaving process of Thai silk using a manual handloom. Then, cross the bridge over the canal to enjoy delicious southern Thai cuisine at The Food School Bangkok. After lunch, we will return to the hotel. Dress code: casual with comfortable fabric long or short sleeves shirt and long trousers

Bangkok Hidden Gems
Minimum 15 persons

08:30-14:00

PROGRAM 4

A wonderful day awaits as you explore the hidden gems of Bangkok, particularly in its vibrant Chinatown. You will be picked up from your hotel and transported to your first destination. Begin your adventure at Talad Noi, renowned as the largest street art trail in the community. Enjoy refreshment at the sustainable café, Mother Roaster, where the senior barista boasts over 70 years. Next, visit the praying pillow house, the only one in the country, where you can make a lucky charm. Continue your journey through the community to Song Wad, an extension of the main Yaowarat Road. Here, you will experience the lively flow of traffic but also discover various boutique shops houses in renovated warehouses. You will also encounter the oldest mosque in the area and learn about the rich history of the Chinese secondary school that has educated former prime ministers. This area offers a wealth of street food options and historical significance, providing ample opportunities for memorable photos. Afterward, enjoy a delicious lunch at E-Ga Restaurant. After lunch, you will return to the hotel. I Dress code: casual with comfortable fabric long or short sleeves shirt and long trousers
